

Chad A. Grange

(801) 323-5909
cgrange@kmclaw.com

Chad Grange is a member of Kirton & McConkie's International Practice Section. His practice focuses on corporate and finance transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, public offerings and private placements of securities, and matters relating to private equity. In addition, Mr. Grange has experience in alternative energy transactions (e.g., ethanol, bio-diesel, coal, natural gas, wind and geothermal), corporate governance, the pharmaceutical industry and medical devices. A substantial portion of Mr. Grange's experience is in Japan. Mr. Grange was an associate at Chadbourne & Parke in New York City, prior to joining Kirton & McConkie in 2009.

Experience

- Represented a public company client in its $900 million acquisition of a 50% equity stake in numerous geothermal and natural gas energy facilities throughout the United States; managed due diligence process for the transaction.
- Represented Robert Bosch LLC in a $1 billion international structured financing transaction and sale and repurchase agreements.
- Managed and led corporate due diligence teams on numerous mergers and acquisitions, financings and other complex corporate transactions on deals ranging in size from $5 million to over $1 billion.
- Represented an existing Japanese client in a roughly $20 million stock acquisition of a high-tech U.S. corporation.
- Advised public company client in its Japanese subsidiary's civil rehabilitation procedure and debt and equity restructuring.
- Represented a publicly traded German corporation, in a complex repo transaction that involved a reverse subsidiary merger with total consideration in excess of $3 billion.
- Represented Japan's largest oncology company in a dispute with one of the largest pharmaceutical companies in the world regarding the joint development of new anti-angiogenic cancer compounds, including a negotiated settlement and license agreement valued at over $1 billion.
- Represented publicly listed pharmaceutical company with internal employee fraud investigation relating to clinical trial agreements, participated in litigation and established compliance program to conform with Sarbanes-Oxley requirements.
- Successfully negotiated and advised privately held S-Corp in a private placement and complex corporate restructuring of its multiple entities into new single streamlined entity.
- Advised international clients on corporate governance strategies in light of the Sarbanes-Oxley rules and

Affiliations

- New York Pharma Forum

Languages Spoken

- Japanese

Interests & Hobbies

- Basketball, golf, anything and everything related to Apple, Inc.

regulations, as well as the intricacies of listing and delisting from U.S. stock markets.

- Advised leading Japanese medical device manufacturing client regarding business and products liability strategies connected with its globally successful kidney dialysis machines.
- Established several corporations in Japan (Kabushiki Kaisha, Yugen Gaisha, etc.) for internationally based clientele interested in establishing a presence in the Japanese and other Asian markets.
- Advised numerous direct sales companies on establishing and expanding their operations in Japan and Asia.

Education

- Brigham Young University, B.A., 1998
- Brigham Young University, J. Reuben Clark Law School, J.D., 2001

Admissions

- 2001 – Utah
- 2004 – U.S.D.C. – D. Utah
- 2008 -- NY (pending)

©2004 Kirton & McConkie, PC