

Steve Chambers

Steve Chambers practices in the areas of bankruptcy, estate planning and general civil litigation. He represents several local banks, including Zions First National Bank and Key Bank, with respect to commercial loans and real estate foreclosures. He also represents debtors in Chapter 7 and 13 consumer bankruptcies. He blogs about estate planning and bankruptcy at www.saltlakelaw.blogspot.com.

Steve was in private practice in Salt Lake City as a sole practitioner for over 20 years where he focused on consumer bankruptcy. In 1998 he joined Zions First National Bank as the supervisor of the Bankruptcy Unit, with responsibility for over 2500 active bankruptcy cases. In 2007 he joined Nielsen & Senior. He currently is a member of the Boys and Girls Clubs of South Valley's planned giving committee, the Banking and Finance section of the Utah Bar Association, and the Solo and Small Firm section where he serves as CLE co-chair.

Steve earned his undergraduate degree in physics from Utah State University. He graduated from the University of Utah College of Law and in 2000 received an MBA degree from the University of Utah.