

Troy J. Aramburu

Send Email

Phone: 801-534-7488

vCard

Troy J. Aramburu concentrates his practice in bankruptcy and commercial litigation, including issues surrounding creditors' rights, workouts, reorganizations, and liquidations. Troy has represented numerous creditors in large Chapter 11 bankruptcies around the country, and has represented Chapter 11 debtors before bankruptcy courts in Utah, Georgia, and Delaware. Troy also represents a number of lenders and equipment lessors in matters before state and federal courts. He also handles state law foreclosures, judgment enforcement, attachments, injunctions, and seeking other remedies. He was named to Utah Business Magazine's 2008 Legal Elite for his specialty in the bankruptcy and workouts area. Troy is also Chair of the Bankruptcy Law section of the Utah State Bar.

Troy earned his B.A. degree, magna cum laude, from Weber State University in 1998 and his J.D. degree, cum laude, from Brigham Young University in 2001 where he served as article solicitor for the Brigham Young University Journal of Public Law. Troy is licensed to practice in Utah and Georgia.

Related News & Articles:

- 09.17.2009 - Troy Aramburu named chair of Bankruptcy Law section of Utah State Bar
- 07.15.2009 - Jones Waldo Attorneys to Speak at UT State Bar Convention
- 07.10.2009 - Jones Waldo Attorney Speaking at NBI Seminar on Collection Law
- 05.12.2009 - Jones Waldo Law Firm Holds Election for Board of Directors, Adds Three Shareholders to the Firm
- 12.10.2007 - Utah Business Magazine Names 36 Jones Waldo Attorneys to Legal Elite

Related Events:

- 10.05.2009 - NBI Seminar - Collection Law from Start to Finish